RESOURCES

THE GOOD, THE BAD, AND THE UGLY: ASSESSING CAC PARTNERSHIPS MIDWEST REGIONAL CAC

Child abuse and neglect are community problems, requiring a response from law enforcement, child protective services, medical professionals, and others. Given that collaboration is central to the CAC movement, how do leaders develop, assess, and monitor partnerships with multiple disciplines - particularly when some of those relationships are "have-to" rather than "want-to?" Watch the webinar now at <https://www.mrcac.org/course/assessing-cac-partnerships/>

MEDICAL PEER REVIEW MIDWEST REGIONAL CAC

The Midwest Regional CAC conducts monthly Medical Peer Review calls to provide the opportunity for participants to review documentation, discuss interpretation of findings, and provide feedback regarding the quality of documentation. This initiative is primarily for the medical providers, however, other team members may choose to participate as well. Sign up at bit.ly/PeerRevMW

AFTER ACTION REVIEW FORM MIDWEST REGIONAL CAC

The Midwest Regional CAC utilizes an After Action Review protocol following the launch of big projects to see what succeeded, what can be celebrated, and what lessons from the good and bad of the project can guide future decisions. Check out the form they use to guide their reflection and modify it for your own use at <https://bit.ly/2voG3Zu>.
